How Millionaires Invest their Money.

It is surprising that money-lenders are so indisposed to accept out of town securities. Such, however, is the case, and hence, while millions are waiting investment, lenders will not notice ap plications from the country. One journal advertises nearly $2,000,000, but city security is wanted. Nearly one half the above sum is offered by one broker, who represents several large estates. Heavy loans on the very best property can be had at 5 per cent., but on second-rate property, such as tene-ment houses, livery stables, etc., 6 per cent. is demanded. The Astors do not lend on mortgage, but prefer govern-ments. The reason is found in their objection to appearing in public prints as parties to forclosure suits. prominent capitalists, such as James Lenox, Peter Geelet, and Robert L. Stuart, adopt a similar policy. They purchase first class railway bonds in large sums; also city bonds, the issue of which amounts to $120,000,000. This personal property is very carefully kept. The Astors have a large safe, which is always guarded. It probably contains $25,000,000 of such securities. The Safe Security company probably has $100,000,000 in its care, and here no hobbery or defalcation has ever been known. There is probably $500,000,000 personal property held in New York city, almost all of which escapes taxation. This estimatedoes not include merchandisc, but simply capital.

Physiognomy.

They were in a railroad cur journeying to Chicago. On the opposite seat was a man of commanding figure, massive brow, and thoughtful expression. What a fine countenance, James? I ish I knew his occupation.

"Maybe he's a lawyer, Amelia." "No, he's not a lawyer."

"He may be a banker." "Not a bit of it! A man with such a leavenly expression couldn't content himself with money. His aim in life is higher than that.

"Do you think he's an editor?"

"An editor with such a face! An editor saying hard things of everybody ridicaling long dresses and abusing his mother in law! An editor cutting and lashing his enemies, skinning public men indiscriminately, and mercilessly slaughtering his best friend for tho sake of a three line paragraph! No, James, he's a philanthropist. He's a Christian minister, or a learned professor, spending his life for the good of mankind His face plainly indicates that he is all that is noble, pure and true."

"I guess you are right, Amelia. 11 take your word and his face for it." At the next station an inquisitive farmer took a seat beside the man with the noble brow, and asked him about his vocation. Amelia held her breath and listened to the reply. It was this:

"I keep a saloon and meat shop! My wife sells beer, and I do my own butch-

A PROMINENT southern senator is reported to have said: "The northern Democrate have put us in this hole we did not seek it; we only cared really for the repeal of the test oath; but the screbers Democrate said in caucus that they sould not carry Ohio and New York unless the supervisor law was repealed, and we were forced into this basiness." There are two admissions here. One is that the Democrats know that they are in a scrape, and the other is that the northern Democrats are as bad as the southern Bourbons. Will the people make a note of it?

THE politicians in Washington say that the revolutionary course entered upon by the Democrats in Congress will give Ohio to the Republicane next fall by 180,000 majority. It will produce a similar feeling to the one produced in 1863 when the Ohio Democracy nominsted that double dyed traitor. C. L. Vallandigham, as their candidate against that sturdy patriot, John Brough. The contest was ficrce and bitter, but the result showed what the people of Ohio can do in an emergency Brough's majority was over 100,000, the largest ever obtained by the candidate of any party in that State. Vallendigham's spirit still lives, and his successors are in a majority in Congrees. Now, as in 1863, they need to be buried out of sight beneath the waves of popular indignation and dis-

Two-thirds of the present Senate and House have been Confederate bondhalders. Such a law would produce a vast amount of conciliation among Southern people." Mr. Phillips tells Secretary Cherman that his object in Allag his bond thus early is to entitle precedence in time of settlement. In the end it will be better for the Southern States to be freed of the great bulk of the negro population; but what will rebound to the ultimate benefit of the whites is simply folly and ruin to the blacks. They leave a genial climate fertile soil, and the advantages of socieey, to find in the wild lands of the West unremunerative soil, an inclement climate, and a brutal white population, which stands ready to stamp their life out as they are now ready to stamp the teachers for what they have done.

GREAT FIRE IN ST. LOUIS.

IMPRISONMENT OF A CHICAGO TRI-BUNE REPORTER.

Washington, D. C., April 4.—The Treasury Department is preparing some new regulations, greatly increasing the authority of collectors of customs at several large cities. Heretofore all disputed questions arising between collectors and importors have been referred to the secretary of the treasury to decide. The new regulations provide that all disputed questions of fact shall in future be decided by collectors and not be sent here. This will relieve the Treasury Department of a large amount

An important point was brought out in the examination of Duncan S. Walker, the secretary of the Democratic congressional committee, by the Wallace committee to day. He was forced to admit, in reply to questions put by the Republican members of the committee, that during the last campaign the Democratic committee had used government envelopes to send out a million of printed campaign documents, and that the work necessary to be done to fold these documents and address them had been performed by employes of the house, who are paid by the goverument. To save postage, the Demo-eratic members franked a large number of these documents. In view of the horror with which the Democrats have professed to regard the action of the Republicans in asking persons in office to contribute money to aid the party, the testimony to-day was regarded as very refreshing.
Republican representatives complain that Speaker Randall does not consult them regarding their places on the committees, but that his only thought seems to be to harmonize and prevent ill-feeling among Democratic members.

The Greenbackers in the house have taken their stand, and will vote with the Democrats to repeal the law allowing the army to keep prace at the polls Weaver, De La Matyr, Jones and Wright all made brief speeches in the House this afternoon, giving their allegiance to the Democrats on this question.

General Hawley, who took the floor at half-past I o'clock, made one of the most telling speeches of this debate He was listened to closely by a crowded house, and he stirred up the Republicans by his elequence.

The general debate will close at 3 o'clock, but no vote is expected to be reached before to-morrow.

Mr. Weaver, the preenback repreordinary ones delivered this week.

The Speaker then called the witness to the bar and demanded whether he would answer the committee.

The witness declined, and a long debate ensued on the resolution introduced by Mr. Wright, of Boone, to commit him to the county jail until he answers, and the substitute offered by Mr. Johnson, to deprive him of the right to appear in the House.

After debate, the substitute was withdrawn, and the resolution was adopted by a vote of 96 to 35.

The Speaker thereupon issued his warrant and sent Nevins to the county

PHILOMATHEAN SOCIETY.—The Society assembled last evening at the usual time, President Bering in the chair. Reports of committees being promptly accepted, the choosing of Marshal and Assistant Marshal, by ballot, resulted in the election of Charles Hurst and Weldon Coltrin. Four ladies and one gentleman were then admitted to membership. The literary exercises were quite interesting. Miss Dollie Malone and Miss Lizzie Lukens gave recitations. Articles read by Joseph Burroughs on "March of Mind," and Le-Grande Payne, about "The Boys," were well received by the audience. An excellent essay on "The Battle of Gettysburg" was presented by Weldon Coltrin. Next. Friday evening the subject for debate will be "Resolved, That the Government Should Enforce the Observance of the Subbath." The speakers in the affirmative will be Charles Harst and Edward Hedman; on the negative, James Moore Weldon Coltrin The discussion of the Sanday question will undoubtedly be a lively one.

W. C. T. U. The Lady, Lawyer, and Lecturer.

The last half century has witnessed great advancement in various directions. Science has pointed the way to improve ments and inventions which have almost transformed the world; but of much greater importance to human kind of the present and future, is the progress made in the clevation of womanhood. Within the memory of our mothers it was thought ridiculous for girls to "cipher" farther than long division. A person proposing that a woman should occupy the pulpit, the platform, or the professor's chair would have been considered a fit subject medicine and law were so fenced about that no thought of woman entering therein came to the minds of our forefathers. But now-thanks to the few brave ones who have led the way-there are few col leges that do not welcome slike both brother and sister, few professions unentured by women who bring credit to them-

The name of Miss Blackwell will ever be held in grateful remembrance, as one whose rare courage, endurance and perse verance gave to woman the blessed privilege of receiving from a sister medical advice and treatment. To Miss Phiebe Couzins, of St. Louis s due the honor of first entering the legal profession—thereby throwing open the law schools of our country to the sisterhood, offering to them a new field of usefulness which has already been entered by forty women workers. Let us hope that they, with those who shall follow, may bring about a much needed reform in the realms of law and justice; that many a modern Shylack may be frustrated un der the influence of "Portla at the Bar;" that parity and peace may enter those places where vulgarity and wrangling are so often the order of the day; and that traffi and right may rule where law alone has been supreme. Miss Couzins is not only an able attor ney and advocate but a talented lecturer and receives the highest praise wherever success throughout the northern and western states. From Boston, to San Prancisco come words of admiration and approval. Her topics are varied and in teresting; whether she speaks of law, suf frage, temperance, education, co opera tive farming, or "Some Mistakes About Eve," sic affords pleasure and profit to the thousands who hear her.
